Sense Publishers, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Against my better judgment, I found myself falling in love with the people in this book. I was reminded of the mediaeval scholares vagantes (wandering scholars) with Peggy like a modern day tour guide whose itinerary was to have us travel from place to place, teacher to teacher, seeking wisdoms. - DAVID EPSTON, MSW, Co-founder, Narrative Therapy, . From the foreword. This is a breakthrough book. It offers teachers and students in human service work a way to transcend classroom walls (and mindsets) by adding the fifth dimension of the World Wide Web. Any teacher, any student of relationship therapy will be inspired by the many examples of the effect of learning on a cloud that Sax puts into her spacecraft of a delicious, lively book. - LYNN HOFFMAN, LICSW, Author, Exchanging Voices: A collaborative approach to family therapy; Family Therapy: An Intimate Journey Peggy Sax provides a model to aspire to of how online learning platforms can be used to enrich systematic learning. I know of no better account of how to teach and to learn therapeutic practice in the era of online learning. Without being taught in any didactic or pedantic way, you cannot help but find yourself responding, reflecting and learning. - JOHN WINSLADE, PHD, Coordinator of Educational Counseling Program, Dept of Educational Psychology Counseling, California State University San Bernardino One does not read so much as engage with the pages of this book, positioning the reader as an active participant in the learning process. As a newer instructor, I was inspired to expand upon my collaborative processes in the classroom, through the increased use of technology and dialogue between students, practitioners and consumers....
