Robert L. Doughton (chairman) presiding. The Chairman. The committee will come to order. The hearings before this committee, which are now open, will, I trust, be confined to the subject matter of the message submitted by the President of the United States to the Congress on June 19, 1935. The message of the President contains three general proposals concerning tax methods and policies; the first, in respect to an inheritance and gift tax in addition to our existing estate and gift taxes; the second, in respect to higher surtaxes on individuals; and the third, in respect to a graduated income tax on corporations. While the message of the President furnishes an excellent guide as to policies and methods for this committee to follow, it does not attempt to specify in detail the precise plan which should be adopted. For example, in the case...
