Excerpt from Literary Art: A Conversation Between a Painter, a Poet and a Philosopher The scene of the conversation is the margin of the Concord River; the time, a summer, not long past; and the speakers three: a Painter, a Poet, and a Philosopher. These three grew up in the country together, went to the same school, academy, and finally, college, maintaining their friendship then and subsequently, unbroken. For upon entering life they had followed different vocations, painting, teaching, and farming; and no one of them had as yet become so celebrated or prosperous as to make him forgetful of the other. Almost in their boyhood they had heard something, but indistinctly, of a new movement in thought and philosophy, which at college they came to know more fully of.
