Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: .or conversing socially, until the time for the first service. Some seven or eight members of the Scripture Union meet together before the general meeting for review of the daily portions read during the week, and for prayer on behalf of the members of the Union throughout the world. When the time arrives for the first service, a hand-bell is rung in the courtyard, and all sit down, the men in the church proper and the women in their own hall, adjoining the church. Then during the singing of another hymn the hand-bell is rung again, and the women, who have been led by the missionary's wife, or other lady worker, in a similar, tho still simpler meeting, file into the church--some of them, tho these are principally the nonChristians, hobbling on their tiny feet. The men sit on the left and the women on...
