Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Jennifer Frase (illustrator). 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Kimjen: My name starts blinking as my worst nightmare becomes real. I AM The Select. As if in the far distance, I see the Overseer hold out his hand to prompt me to enter the spotlight and to move further on-stage. I freeze with horror. Fear keeps me silent as I realize just how afraid I am of the future. I do not want to be Select. In spite of my nearly overwhelming fear, I find myself slowly and softly whispering aloud that I must take the Option to join the Candidate in the tasks. I must take the path that allows me to have a chance for a real choice. Stunned silence reigns as I carefully leave the center stage to The Select s place to await the announcement of the Candidate. Jayjo: Drums roll. I think how much the unfortunate Candidate must be suffering, knowing that he still holds an invitation to the celebration dinner and that the drums must mean that all other potential Candidates have already been shown. I find I pity the poor man. I watch with interest as Protectors enter the crowd and quickly work their way through the mass of tightly packed bodies. A path of sorts clears before them. Two of the Protectors stop directly in front of me and make low bows. They politely request my attendance on the stage. At the same time, my picture is suddenly flashed on the screen with the bold words: The Candidate. I silently rage in an inner scream. I calmly proceed over to stand beside the Select. We are two people, alone in a crowd. We are two strangers...
