This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Good News Publishers, United States, 2013. Pamphlet. Book Condition: New. 137 x 86 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. No Greater Love Rembrandt, one of the greatest painters the world has ever known, did something amazing in his universally respected work, The Raising of the Cross. He included himself in the painting as one of those who crucified Jesus! It's a truth we each need to acknowledge for ourselves. Why would he do that? Why would Rembrandt do such a thing? Because he believed what the Bible says about us--that we have all failed God and are guilty before him. All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23), and the wages of sin is death [eternal separation from God in a place of punishment] (Romans 6:23). Left to ourselves, our ultimate destiny will be to experience the wrath of God forever. Why would Jesus die? But God offers us hope in the good news of Jesus Christ. Jesus is fully God. But he also became fully man when he came to earth to be born as a baby so he could make a way for our sins to be forgiven. Then later, as a grown man, he died on the cross, taking the punishment for our sins, dying in our place. That is why just before Jesus died, he shouted, My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (Matthew 27:46). He was taking the awful punishment for our sins upon himself. Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous [Christ] for the unrighteous [us], that he might bring us to God (1 Peter 3:18). There is no greater love. What did Jesus death have to do with us? Because God loved us, he sent Jesus to die for us and be our...
