There are no clues, no evidence and nothing normal nor tangible, to make sense of it, the detectives are baffled. However, the young detective discovers the truth and finds that his first case may not only be his strangest case but maybe his last. Six misguided youths have conjured up a demon that they control in their sleep to rob local drug dealers, a crime that detectives are not trained for. Detective Bryant has his suspects but nothing physical to connect the six youths to the slaughters. Then through their greed and recklessness they unleash the hellish creature upon the world and now detective Bryant has to aid them in destroying it before it destroys humankind.
