Sourcebooks, Inc, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What Experts Say: A clever and fun way to teach your kids the true value of money. -Jen Singer, author of You're a Good Mom (and Your Kids Aren't So Bad, Either) Great concept, great lessons, and every family can implement these ideas. -Lori Mackey, founder of The Earn My Keep philosophy is so creative and innovative and I love the message it promotes: that hard work and money earned have value-a notion that seems to have lost its strength for our youth over the past couple decades. -Allison K. Chase, PhD, clinical psychologist specializing in children, adolescents, and families Addresses the sense of entitlement that so many of today's children have by instilling a sense of responsibility for their own wealth and career choices through creative play. -Susan Heim, coauthor/editor, Chicken Soup for the Soul series The easy-to-do twist on traditional allowance that's wowing parents across the country! The program featured in Earn It, Learn It is the only one that lets kids ages four through twelve earn by doing real jobs. Your child will learn from folks like a: Toy Designer from Crayola Curator from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum Zoologist from the Saint Louis Zoo Teach your kid the difference between making the bed as a member of the family and earning a living in the real world. Expose your child to art, manners, math, and more. And build a foundation for a lifelong love of learning and fiscal independence. All while having fun!.
