Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Cupid s Capers Scene I - Drawing room in third grooves. Sofa L.2 - Mrs. D. reading at table R.-Mirror R. C. - Knock L. - Enter Katrina L.3 E. Katrina. Vas it you who haf ring for me, Mrs. Dusenberry? Mrs. D. Yes, Katrina, I wanted to tell you that you might take that half holiday this afternoon, that you were asking for only - Katrina. Oh, tank you, ma am. I vas so happy now as never vas. Now I can go down und see fadder Stein und all der leedle Steins. I vas so tickled I vas laugh all over mit myself. Mrs. D. Never mind about your father and the young ones, but wait until I have finished talking. What I was about to say is that you may have the half holiday, but I want you to take Nan along with you, as I am expecting callers this afternoon and the dear sweet thing would be so much embarrassed among strangers, as she is so very timid. You may go now. Katrina. All right. I vas go right away queck. (aside) I vas haf a nice dimes mit all dot leedle kid along. (exit L.3 E. Mrs. D. There is no use in talking, Mr. Duller has been coming long enough to have made up his mind, one way or the other, and I will not have him fooling around any longer unless he means business. If I don t bring him to the point this time then my name isn t Arabella Dusenberry, wife of the late Ichabod Dusenberry, J. P. If old Duffer only had the snap about...
