Excerpt: .realm of the god of the other world in truth, to the good and wise god, whither, if God will, my soul is soon to go, --is this soul, which has such qualities and such a nature, straightway scattered and destroyed when it departs from the body, as most men say? Far from it, dear Cebes and Simmias, but the truth is much rather this: --if it departs pure, dragging with it nothing of the body, because it never willingly associated with the body in life, but avoided it and gathered itself into itself alone, since this has always been its constant study--but this means nothing else than that it pursued philosophy rightly and really practised being in a state of death: or is not this the practice of death? By all means. Then if it is in such a condition, it goes away...
